Today we welcomed representatives of the Variety Club and 9 corporate sponsors to a thank you luncheon. These very generous people allowed us to have access to a 22 seater bus. We cannot thank them enough for their generosity and the least we could do is offer them lunch.

Read to Remember
Miss Mercuri organised all classes to read the Poem of Remembrance simultaneously at 11am followed by a minute’s silence. This program is being carried out across Australia to highlight the importance of Remembrance Day. Our School Captains, Josh Jenkins-Bamblett and Ashlyn Jansen will be representing our school at the Remembrance Service being held at the Cenotaph today. They will be laying a wreath on behalf of the students at the school.

Attendance Advertisement
We are very excited to be filming a community announcement to promote attendance across the region. Selected students from all Dubbo K-6 Public Schools will be starring in the ad. The filming will begin on Wednesday. Thanks Mrs Agnew and Miss Iverach for your organisation.

Swimming School
BPS swimming school starts Monday 24th November and goes for 2 weeks. Swimming lessons are being held at the Dubbo Aquatic Centre. Lessons run for 45min, with the kids leaving school at 10:30am and returning once the lesson is finished. There are only 50 places, these are filling fast. Cost is $30 per student.

Zoo Snooze
Stage 2 students are off to the Zoo for an overnight excursion on Thursday 20th November, leaving in the afternoon at 4pm. Please finalise your payments as soon as possible.

Cooking in Special Education
Last week I had the privilege of cooking homemade hamburgers with students in Special Education. We learnt how to make a rissole from scratch, along with chopping onions without crying. (Trick is to stick your tongue out while dicing the onion). Students filled their buns with yummy salads. To end the cooking class students made their own banana splits with popping candy. It was loads of fun! Miss Mercuri
